

SUMIT RAJ

ABOUT

I'm Sumit Raj, an undergrad student of computer science at KIIT University in Bhubaneswar.

I have always had a passion for making and improving things. I am a constant learner and I like picking up new skills and gain knowledge that I can apply positively on things I work on.

I have previously worked with startups like RidingO, Retention.ai, Gogosu.com, etc where I applied my technical and informational skills to great use. I have also been freelancing for last 5 years and have served clients from over 10+ countries on design and dev projects.

EDUCATION

KIIT University, Bhubaneswar

CSE B.tech | 2015-2019. Pursuing B.tech in computer science from KIIT University. I have also been working as a Sr. executive and web dev head at KIIT Entrepreneurship cell and have strategised various campaigns.

Ahmadi Inter College, Patna

PCM | 2013-2015. Graduated with an intermediate degree in science. Was an active participant in school's computer club and lead the group in organising development training classes in highschool.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Summer Intern at KRITI Technologies pvt. ltd.

May 2017 - Nov 2017

Interned at Kriti Technologies at their offshore development project in Cambodia for 2 months where I used node.js and electron.ip to build an offline high performance data storage app for their client. This overseas project was offered after completing the summer internship at their Bhubaneswar office during summer.

Freelance App and Web designer & developer

2015 - Present

I have been working as a part time freelance designer and developer from past 4 years. I have a long experience of designing App and Website UI/UX and have worked with clients from USA, UK, China, etc. I have also worked with startups like retention.ai, Gogosu, Sphix, PocketDesk on their website and app UI.

Sr. Executive at KIIT Entrepreneurship Cell

Sep 2016 - Present

I have also been actively involved with KIIT Entrepreneurship cell and have been leading the design team. I have also strategised for and organised Entrepreneurship Awareness Camps in collaboration with KIIT Technology Business Incubator and the Govt. of India.

Entrepreneur In Residence at GSF India

May 2012 - Aug 2012

I worked with GSF (Global Superangels Forum) as an EiR in Bangalore during my highschool. During my time there I worked closely with startups like RidingO and TinySurprise and got a first hand exposure of the startup work culture. I also worked in the tech wing of GSF and updated the website frontend.
